Experienced healthcare executives to improve financial operations.

DCCS was founded by David C. Capone following a successful career as a health system restructuring CFO. Our approach to financial support is to initially make the proper assessment of our clients' needs and introduce an experienced healthcare finance professional who produce excellent results, provide a depth of expertise, and be a cultural fit.

DCCS Finance Support Services is led by Pamela J. Gallagher, CPA, MBA, DBA, who has for many years been providing financial support services to numerous health systems across the USA. She is an experienced health system CFO who understands the internal day-to-day demands within a health system's finance operations, and how a high-performance finance team best supports resourcefulness, compliance, assurance, and internal/external reporting.

DCCS provides oversight to each engagement meeting regularly with client leadership to assure outstanding financial support services.

“DCCS was founded on financial advisory and financial support services. We have successfully served both the largest and smallest health systems with a deep strength in this area for many, many years.”

David Capone,
DCCS President & Founder
